

Authorities Offer Cash Reward For Information Related to Burglary Spree

Monday, 09 June 2014 23:09 -

The Columbia County Sheriff's Office and St. Helens Police Department have announced the establishment of a cash reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those person(s) involved in the numerous burglaries occurring in the Greater St. Helens area. Working in conjunction with the Columbia Enforcement Narcotics team (CENT), a reward of up to $1,000 dollars has been established to help draw out this information. CENT is offering the reward for specific, credible information that leads to arrest(s) and conviction(s) in this case. People with information concerning these burglaries can contact St. Helens Police Sgt. Phil Edwards at \(503\) 397-3333 or Sheriff's Detective Lenard Olsen \(503\) 366-4611 .