Columbia County Sheriff Jeff Dickerson announced today that Carjacking suspect Devin Wilmoth is in custody.

Investigators from the U.S. Marshal's fugitive task force developed a lead that Devin Wilmoth was holed up at a Gaston, Oregon location. Task force members arrested Wilmoth without incident about an hour ago in Gaston, the sheriff said. The address where Wilmoth was found is 41794 SW Vandehey Rd.

"I want to thank all our law enforcement partners in Columbia County, the U.S. Marshal's Service and in the Metro area for their tireless efforts to locate and arrest this suspect," Dickerson said.

This investigation continues, and further updates will be issued as soon as we have more information.
