

UPDATE: CARJACKING SUSPECT INVESTIGATION

Thursday, 11 February 2010 18:28 -

Investigators believe that the suspect in custody for last Tuesday's carjacking and attempted murder incident in Columbia county, might be responsible for similar additional crimes in recent days.

"We believe this last incident to be the culmination of a series of violent events surrounding Mr. Wilmoth," Sheriff Jeff Dickerson said. "We are encouraging those who may have worried about coming forward with information regarding similar crimes with the suspect still on the loose, to consider coming forward now with their stories now that Wilmoth is in custody."

Anyone with information regarding what investigators believe to be a crime spree involving, theft, armed robbery and other incidents involving Devin Wilmoth in recent weeks to leave a message for investigators on the Columbia County Tip Line at (503) 397-0007 or (877-798-8881).
